Men's Lacrosse: No. 11/12 Buckeyes Open NCAA Tournament at Cornell Saturday

GAMETIME

COLUMBUS, Ohio -- The No. 11/12 Ohio State men's lacrosse team (10-5, 4-1/t-1st GWLL) travels to Ithaca, N.Y., to open the 2008 NCAA Championship vs. No. 7/8 Cornell (11-3, 5-1/t-1st Ivy). The Buckeyes and No. 8-seeded Big Red will meet at 5:05 p.m. on Schoellkopf Field.

The game will be televised live on ESPNU with Rob Simmelkjaer and Jack Emmer calling the action. Live stats can be accessed from the men's lacrosse page at ncaa.com.

Tickets for the first-round game between the Buckeyes and Big Red will go on sale at 10 a.m. Monday. Tickets can be purchased online at CornellBigRed.com or by phone at 607-255-4247 from 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday-Friday. Tickets are $8 for adults and $5 for seniors, college and high school students (with ID only) and children 12 and under. The will call window is located in the Athletic Ticket Office in the Bartels Hall lobby.

WHAT'S NEXT

The winner of the NCAA tournament first-round game between Ohio State and Cornell will return to Schoellkopf Field in Ithaca May 18 for the quarterfinal round vs. the winner of No. 1 Duke vs. Loyola.

The quarterfinal winners advance to the NCAA semifinals May 24 at Gillette Stadium in Foxborough, Mass. The national championship game is slated for May 26 in Foxborough.

HISTORY LESSON

This is the third NCAA tournament appearance for Ohio State, all under head coach Joe Breschi.

The team was an at-large selection in 2003. That team traveled to College Park, Md., where it lost to No. 3-seed Maryland, 8-5.

In 2004, Ohio State won the outright GWLL title to earn the league's automatic bid. The squad lost in the first round at No. 8-seed North Carolina, 13-6, in Chapel Hill, N.C.

HOMECOMING

BUCKEYE LAX HITS

- Ohio State is making its first NCAA tournament appearance since 2004 and the third in program history.
- Buckeye senior Kevin Buchanan and junior Joel Dalgarno are tied for third nationally in scoring, averaging 4.6 points a game this year.
- With six points in the GWLL tournament last weekend, Kevin Buchanan moved into second place all-time on the career scoring list for the Buckeyes.
- The Buckeyes led the league with eight All-GWLL selections, led by GWLL Player of the Year Kevin Buchanan. Buchanan, Joel Dalgarno, Peet Poillon and Scott Matthews were first-team selections, while James Green, Ricky Pages, Keith Lovett and Stefan Schroder were named to the second team. Buchanan is just the fourth Buckeye to be named the GWLL Player of the Year. Jon Ewert won GWLL MVP honors in 1986, Tony Russo was the player of the year in 2003 and Russo and Greg Bice were co-winners in 2004.
- The Buckeyes are third nationally in scoring offense and have scored double-digit goals 11 of their last 12 games , including two 20-goal outings.

CHAMPIONS

The Buckeyes are GWLL regular-season tri-champions after posting a 4-1 record in league play. It is the team's first title since winning the crown outright in 2004.

THE GWLL

Ohio State, Denver and Notre Dame, who shared the GWLL regular-season title with matching 4-1 records, all earned a spot in the 2008 NCAA Championship. Notre Dame was the league's automatic qualifier after winning the conference tournament, while Ohio State and Denver earned at-large spots. It is the first time three GWLL teams have made the 16-team bracket in one season. The league has the second-most representatives in the tournament of any league this year, behind only the four selections from the ACC.

ALL-GWLL

Led by 2008 GWLL Player of the Year Kevin Buchanan, four Ohio State men's lacrosse players earned a spot on the All-GWLL first team, the league announced May 1. Four other Buckeyes were second-team selections, giving Ohio State a conference-high eight honorees.

Buchanan and junior Joel Dalgarno earned spots on the All-GWLL first team at attack and were joined by juniors midfielder Peet Poillon and defenseman Scott Matthews. On the second team, sophomore James Green was a selection at midfield, senior Ricky Pages was the long-stick midfielder honoree, sophomore Keith Lovett earned a spot on defense and senior Stefan Schroder was the second-team goalie.

Buchanan is a three-time first-team choice, while Dalgarno was named to the first team for the second-consecutive season. Pages earned All-GWLL honors for the third time in his career after receiving first-team accolades the last two seasons. Schroder is making his second-consecutive appearance as the second-team goalie.

POLLING

Ohio State was ranked 11th in the Nike/Inside Lacrosse media poll released Monday and moved to 12th in the USILA coaches poll.

BUCKEYE SNAPSHOT

The Buckeyes are 10-5 on the year and were 4-1 in the Great Western Lacrosse League. Three of the team's four losses have been to ranked teams in overtime - No. 11 Navy (8-7 OT), No. 19 Bucknell (8-7 3OT) and No. 13 UMBC (12-11 2OT).

Last weekend, the Buckeyes beat Denver, 15-8, in the GWLL tournament semifinals before falling to Notre Dame in the championship game, 9-2.

The team is averaging 13.02 goals a game and allowing 8.31 goals a contest. The Buckeyes have converted 30-of-63 (.476) man-up chances and have stopped 51-of-74 (.689) opponent chances.

Senior tri-captain Kevin Buchanan is first on the team with 40 goals, junior Joel Dalgarno has a team-best 32 assists and the duo share the team point lead with 69 points each. Junior Peet Poillon has 27 goals to rank third and is fourth with 33 points. Junior Jeff Ryan is third in points with 36, including 23 goals and 13 assists. Sophomore James Green has a 19-11-30 line and classmate Mario Ventiquattro also has hit double digits with 22 points, including 17 goals.

Senior goalie Stefan Schroder has started all 15 games and has an 8.21 goals-against average and .578 save percentage.

Junior Nick Carr is first on the team with 62 groundballs. Schroder is second with 47 groundballs.

BUCKEYES VS. BIG RED

The series between Ohio State and Cornell is tied at one win each. The Big Red won, 11-5, at home May 6, 2000 before the Buckeyes returned the favor on their home field with an 8-7 win in Columbus May 4, 2001.

VS. THE IVYS

Ohio State is 4-5 all-time vs. current members of the Ivy League - 1-0 vs. Dartmouth and Harvard, 1-1 vs. Brown and Cornell, 0-1 vs. Princeton and 0-2 vs. Penn. Ohio State and Yale have never played on the lacrosse field.

CORNELL COMMENTS

No. 7/8 Cornell, the No. 8 seed in the NCAA tournament, was 11-3 (5-1 Ivy League) during the regular season and received the Ivy League's automatic bid to the tournament. The Big Red shared the conference title with Brown, but won the head-to-head tiebreaker to receive the NCAA bid.

The team is eighth nationally in offense, averaging 11.43 goals a game, and 18th in the NCAA, allowing 8.07 goals a contest. The team is fourth in face-off win percentage (.608).

Ryan Hurley has a team-best 44 goals and 57 points, ranking in the Top 6 nationally in both categories. John Glynn is first with 24 assists and ranks second with 40 points. Max Siebald is second on the team in goals (25) and third in points (31). Chris Finn (23), John Espey (15) and Christopher Ritchie (14) all have double-digit goals on the year. Hurley is second on the team with 13 assists, followed by Espey with 10.

Glynn has won 98-157 (.624) of his faceoffs, while Tommy Schmicker has won 76-of-123 (.618).

Jake Myers has started all 14 games in goal and has an 8.27 goals-against average and .547 save percentage.

Jeff Tambroni, a 1992 graduate of Hobart, is in his eighth season at the helm of the Big Red.

HEAD COACH JOE BRESCHI

Joe Breschi, a 1990 graduate of North Carolina, is in his 11th season at the helm of the Buckeyes. He has led the squad to the GWLL title in 1999 (co), '03 (co) and '04 and to the NCAA tournament in 2003 and '04. He earned league coach of the year honors for his efforts in 1999, '03 and '04.

Breschi's career record at OSU stands at 91-62 to rank first in Buckeye history for career coaching victories.

Prior to coming to Ohio State, Breschi served as an assistant coach at Brown (1993-97) and at UNC (1991-92).

A standout player for the Tar Heels, he was a two-time All-ACC selection, a two-time All-America honoree and a North-South All-Star Game participant in 1990. Breschi was a member of the U.S. National Team in 1994 and 1998.

IT'S ALL CONNECTED

Like most lacrosse programs, there are a number of connections between the Ohio State and Cornell rosters.

Buckeye junior Jeff Ryan and Cornell head coach Jeff Tambroni both are graduates of West Genesee High School in Syracuse.

Buckeye junior Corey Bentine and freshmen Scott Lathrop and TJ Powell attended Upper Arlington High School in Columbus, as did Cornell junior goalie Kyle Harer.

Ohio State freshman goalie Ryan Keneally and CU senior John Espey attended St. Anthony's on Long Island.

Buckeye junior defenseman Scott Matthews, Cornell junior Rocco Romero and freshman Jack Dudley all attended Boys' Latin School in Baltimore.

Buckeye freshman Bryce Woodson and sophomore Patrick Hansen attended Salisbury School, along with Cornell sophomore Brad Kamedulski. Hansen and CU junior Christian Pastirik also attended St. Mary's (Annapolis, Md.).

COMMON FOES

Ohio State and Cornell have played three common opponents this year. Each team opened the year vs. Navy. Ohio State lost to the Midshipmen in overtime, 8-7, while Cornell beat Navy, 8-7. The Buckeyes beat North Carolina, 14-11, April 12 and Cornell fell to the Tar Heels, 13-8, March 2. The Buckeyes beat Denver twice this year, 20-13 in Columbus April 19 and 15-8 May 2 in the GWLL semifinals. Cornell downed the Pioneers, 20-7, March 18 in a neutral-site game.

LACE THEM UP

Buckeye players and coaches are wearing lime green shoelaces in honor of Nick "HEAD" Colleluori, a relentless lacrosse player who lost his life to lymphoma Nov. 28, 2006 at age 21. Colleluori was a native of the Philadelphia area and played lacrosse at Hofstra.

The laces are sold through the HEADstrong Foundation, which supports blood cancer research efforts. To date, the foundation has raised over $30,000 from the sale of the laces. For more information, visit HEADstrongfoundation.org.

A LOOK AT THE GWLL TOURNEY

Ohio State jumped out to a 7-1 lead at the end of the first quarter and never looked back, defeating No. 19 Denver, 15-8, in the semifinals of the inaugural GWLL tournament last Friday (May 2) at Seaholm High School in Birmingham, Mich.

Junior Joel Dalgarno led the Buckeyes with five goals, three assists and eight points in the win, the Buckeyes' second over the Pioneers this season (20-13 April 19 in Columbus). Senior Kevin Buchanan had three points, on two goals and an assist. Junior Jeff Ryan and sophomores James Green and Mario Ventiquattro each had a goal and an assist vs. the Pioneers. Senior goalie Stefan Schroder had 14 saves in the win, with 12 in the second half (eight in the fourth quarter).

The Buckeyes opened the scoring on a Dalgarno goal. DU tied the game at 1 before the Buckeyes went on an eight-goal run that was stopped at the 7:05 mark of the second quarter. The Buckeyes led 10-4 at halftime. Ohio State shut out the Pioneers in the third quarter as it extended its lead to 13-4. DU outscored OSU, 4-2, in the final quarter.

In the GWLL tournament final last Sunday, the Buckeyes lost to top seed Notre Dame, 9-2.

Notre Dame led, 3-1, at the end of the first quarter and 5-1 at halftime. Each team scored once in the third quarter and the Irish outscored the Buckeyes, 3-0, in the fourth quarter.

The Buckeyes outshot Notre Dame, 41-34, in the game. Notre Dame goalie Joey Kemp made 18 saves in all 60 minutes in the cage. Schroder had 10 stops, including seven in the second half.

POTW

The Buckeyes led the GWLL with five player of the week honors during 2008. Kevin Buchanan was a three-time choice (March 13, April 10, April 16), while Joel Dalgarno was honored twice (April 2, April 23). During the year, the Buckeyes picked up four-consecutive awards April 2-23.

TOP 10

In the national rankings released Monday, Ohio State ranked in the Top 10 in the NCAA in man-up offense (3rd/.476), scoring offense (4th/13.27) and scoring margin (4th/+4.8).

WITH THE NATION'S BEST

Individually, senior Kevin Buchanan and junior Joel Dalgarno are tied for third nationally in points per game, averaging 4.6 points an outing.

Dalgarno is fourth in the country in assists per game (2.13) and 13th in goals per game (2.47). Buchanan holds down the seventh spot in assists an outing (1.93) and is ninth in goals per game (2.67).

Senior goalie Stefan Schroder is 15th in save percentage (.578) and 19th in goals-against average (8.21).

DOUBLE DIGITS

Ohio State is 10-5 this year, the first time the team has hit double-digits in wins since the 2004 squad was 12-4. It is the third campaign with 10 or more wins under Breschi, along with three nine-win seasons.

ON D

Ohio State has held its opponents to nine goals or less in 11-of-15 games this season. The squad is allowing 8.47 goals on the year to rank 21st in the NCAA.

The Buckeyes allowed a season-low four goals vs. Bellarmine April 2 and gave up just five goals vs. Air Force April 6. The team also held Robert Morris to five goals March 15 and gave up six goals vs. Colgate Feb. 24 and Penn State March 8.

TOP PERFORMERS

Joel Dalgarno and Kevin Buchanan have a number of the top single-game point, goal and assist games in the NCAA this season. Goalie Stefan Schroder is among the leaders in single-game saves.

Dalgarno's nine-goal game is tied for 12th all-time in the NCAA record book.

OFFENSIVE OUTBURST

The Buckeyes rank fourth nationally in scoring offense, averaging 13.27 goals a game.

The squad has two 20-goal performances this year and joins Virginia as the only teams in the NCAA to hit the 20-goal mark twice this season.

The team scored 20 goals at Bellarmine April 2, the first time the squad hit the 20-goal mark since a 23-5 victory over St. Joseph's March 7, 1995. It was the most goals for the Buckeyes since a 19-1 victory over Wagner Feb. 23, 2007 and followed the squad's 18-7 victory at Quinnipiac March 29. The team followed with a 16-5 win over Air Force April 6 and a 14-11 victory vs. North Carolina April 19. Against Denver April 19, the Buckeyes again scored 20 goals, downing the Pioneers, 20-13. The squad had 12 goals at Notre Dame April 27, followed by a 15-8 win over Denver May 2. The streak of games with 11 or more goals was stopped in the Buckeyes' loss to Notre Dame in the GWLL final last Sunday.

The Buckeyes have scored 11 or more goals in 11 of the last 12 outings and have double-digit goals in 12-of-15 games this year. (The Buckeyes' two goals vs. Notre Dame last Sunday were a season low and the fewest goals scored since a 9-3 loss at Navy Feb. 24, 2006.)

The program record for scoring average in a season is 13.4, set by the 1966 squad that went 14-0. The 1978 team averaged 13.3 goals a game and posted a 14-1 mark.

IN THE RECORD BOOKS

Senior Kevin Buchanan has 168 points, with 93 goals and 75 assists, as a Buckeye to rank second all-time in program history, behind only Terry Gilmore, who had 250 points (123g, 127a) from 1976-79. Buchanan is tied for fourth in career helpers with Craig Cooper (1974-78) and Mike Norton (2000-03) in fourth with 75 career assists each. Buchanan is one goal shy of tying Tim McCabe (1986-89) for 10th in program history.

Junior Joel Dalgarno has now has 90 goals, 70 assists and 160 points for the Scarlet and Gray to rank fifth in program history in points and seventh in career assists.

All-time, 24 Buckeyes have recorded 100 or more points. Buchanan and Dalgarno are the first Buckeyes to hit triple digits since current assistant coach Anthony Gilardi in 2004. He ranks 13th (tied) with 133 career points.

MORE RECORD BOOK BANTER

Kevin Buchanan and Joel Dalgarno each have 69 points this season, tying for the sixth-best single-season in Ohio State history. They are the most points for a Buckeye in a season since Timothy Johnson had 63 in 1997.

Buchanan has a team-best 40 goals, ranking eighth in program history in a season. Dalgarno leads the team with 32 assists, tying Todd Walker (1977) for sixth in a single season.

Buchanan and Dalgarno (37 goals) join Smith (38/2002; 33/2003), Gilardi (32/2002) and Sandy Boyce (30/2001) as the only Buckeyes with 30 goals in a single season since 2001. Buchanan is the first Buckeye to hit the 40-goal mark since Tim McCabe had 47 goals in 1988.

WE'RE GOING STREAKING

Kevin Buchanan ranks in the Top 3 in the nation for longest current scoring streak, posting at least one point in each of his last 44 games. The national leader is Duke's Matt Danowski, who has a point in 56 games in a row.

STREAKS STOPPED

A number of scoring streaks were ended in the loss to Notre Dame last Sunday. Junior Peet Poillon had his scoring streak stopped at 11 and was held scoreless for just the second time this season. Junior Jeff Ryan had his streak of consecutive games with a point stopped at 13. Sophomore James Green had his point streak stopped at seven.

BUCHANAN BULLETS

2008 GWLL Player of the Year Kevin Buchanan, a three-time GWLL Player of the Week this season, ranks third (tied) in the NCAA in points per game, averaging 4.6 points an outing.

Buchanan had his streak of games with five or more points ended with a four-point game (2g, 2a) vs. Denver in the GWLL semis last Friday. In the previous seven games, Buchanan averaged 6.43 points a contest, including a career-best nine points vs. Denver April 19. His previous high for points in a game was eight, set vs. Air Force April 23, 2006.

During the stretch, he had back-to-back five-point games vs. UMBC March 22 and Quinnipiac March 29, followed by two-consecutive six-point outings vs. Bellarmine April 2 and Air Force April 6. He had seven points against North Carolina April 12, followed by the nine-point game vs. Denver and a five-point outing against Notre Dame April 27.

Buchanan, who is ninth nationally averaging 2.67 goals a game, had a career-best six-goal game vs. the Pioneers April 19 after scoring five vs. the Tar Heels.

He also has two four-goal games and two five-assist games this season.

Buchanan leads the Buckeyes with a career-best 40 goals this year, surpassing the then-career-high 26 goals he had as a junior. He has multiple goals in 11-of-15 games.

Buchanan, who tied for the team lead in points in 2006 and was second in 2007, now has a career-best 69 points on the year.

He is second on the team with a career-best 29 assists, bettering the 27 he had last season, and ranks seventh nationally in assists per game (1.93).

He is on a 44-game point streak that began with two games remaining in the 2005 season (May 1, 2005 vs. Fairfield). He has an 89-71-160 line during the stretch, has multiple points in each of his last 27 games and is on a 24-game goal-scoring streak.

Buchanan now is in the Top 10 in the Buckeye record book for career assists (4th/75) and points (2nd/168).

MAN-UP MASTERY

The Buckeyes are third nationally and first in the GWLL in man-up offense, converting 47.6 percent of their chances (30-63). Top performances include a 7-for-9 game at Quinnipiac, a 5-for-8 outing vs. Bellarmine and converting 4-of-8 chances against Air Force.

Sophomore Mario Ventiquattro leads the team with seven EMO goals, followed by junior Joel Dalgarno with six. Eight Buckeyes have scored at least one extra-man goal this year. Ventiquattro had a league single-game best three EMO goals at Quinnipiac.

Before the seven-goal outburst vs. the Bobcats, the team's high in the last four-plus years was three EMO goals in a game, set three times (March 15 at Robert Morris, March 31, 2007 at Quinnipiac and March 31, 2004 at Notre Dame).

MAN-DOWN MADNESS

The Buckeyes stopped Denver on 8-of-10 man-up chances in the GWLL semifinal game last Friday. On the year, the Buckeyes have held opponents scoreless on 51-of-74 chances (.689).

SHARP SHOOTERS

The Buckeyes have scored on 35.8 percent of their shots this season to lead the GWLL. The squad has converted 199-of-556 shots this year. Of the team's 556 shots, 344 shots have gone on goal (61.9 percent).

SO CLOSE

The Buckeyes' next goal will be their 200th of the season.

AN EXCLUSIVE CLUB

Kevin Buchanan and Joel Dalgarno lead the Buckeyes with 40 and 37 goals, respectively.

Ohio State is one of four programs in the country with at least two 30-goal scorers this season. Top-ranked Duke has had three players hit the 30-goal mark, with Ohio State joining Colgate and Virginia as teams with two 30-goal scorers. In all, 23 NCAA Division I players have hit the 30-goal mark this season.

EYES ON THE BUCKEYES

When 29,601 fans in Ohio Stadium watched Ohio State defeat Denver April 19, the fans set national men's lacrosse records for regular-season (20,180 March 3, 2007 in Baltimore) and on-campus (19,850, April 18, 1987 in College Park, Md.) games.

FUN IN JULY

Buckeye sophomore James Green will compete for Team USA in the ILF Under-19 World Championship July 3-12 in Coquitlam, British Columbia. Green was one of 23 players selected from a pool of 120 at a tryout camp last July.

CAREER YEAR

Sophomore James Green had back-to-back career-best four points games, including a hat trick and an assist in each. He had a career-best four points in the win vs Denver April 19, including his second hat trick this season (March 29 vs. Quinnipiac) to mark his career high in points and matched the total vs. Notre Dame April 27. He has multiple points in 12-of-15 games this season and at least one point in all but two games on the year. Green, a second-team All-GWLL selection this year, has a career-best 19 goals, 11 assists and 30 points this season, passing the 10-3-13 line he had as a freshman last season.

DALGARNO DARTS

Junior Joel Dalgarno, who led the GWLL in scoring as a sophomore last year, is tied with teammate Kevin Buchanan for the lead this year. Dalgarno has 69 points, including a league-best 32 assists, this year. He is third (tied) nationally in points per game (4.6), fourth in assists per outing

(2.13) and 13th in goals per game (2.47).

Dalgarno was held scoreless vs. North Carolina April 19, marking the first time in 38 games as a Buckeye he did not record at least one point, but he responded with a career-best nine goals and 12 points in the win over Denver April 19.

Dalgarno has at least one assist in 32-of-42 career games, has at least one goal in 37-of-42 outings and has multiple points in 38-of-42 contests.

In addition to his nine goals and 12 points vs. Denver, Dalgarno had a career-best eight assists and then-career high nine points at Quinnipiac March 29. Against Denver May 2 in the GWLL semis, he had an eight-point performance, with five goals and three assists. He also had back-to-back six-point outings vs. Bellarmine (1g, 5a) April 2 and Air Force (3g, 3a) April 6.

He has 90 goals and 70 assists for 160 points for the Scarlet and Gray, ranking fifth in career points and seventh in career assists.

IN THE CAGE

Senior goalie Stefan Schroder has started all 15 games for the Buckeyes this season. He had a season-best 18 saves against Notre Dame April 27 after posting 17 vs. Denver the week before (April 19). He also had 14 saves vs. Denver May 2, in the victory over North Carolina April 12 and at Robert Morris (March 15). Schroder has 10 games with 10 or more saves this year, including nine times in the last 12 outings.

He is 15th nationally in save percentage (.578) and 18th in goals-against average (8.21).

Schroder has earned the starting nod in all 29 games since joining the Buckeyes last season and has a career goals-against average of 8.21, with a career save percentage of .576.

RYAN'S ROLL

Junior Jeff Ryan has a point in all but two games this year, going scoreless in the season opener vs. Navy and in the last time out vs. Notre Dame last Sunday. In the middle, he had a 13-game scoring streak. He is third on the team with 37 points, matching the total he had last season. He is fourth on the team with 23 goals and ranks third with 13 assists. He had a season-best three assists and five points vs. Colgate Feb. 24 before posting three goals and four points at Robert Morris March 15, at Villanova March 18, at Quinnipiac March 29 and vs. Bellarmine April 2.

Ryan has a point in 27-of-29 games as a Buckeye and now has 73 career points for the Scarlet and Gray, with 50 goals and 23 assists. He played his freshman season at Hobart, where he had a 7-6-13 line in 2006.

PEET POSTS POINTS

Junior transfer Peet Poillon, a first-team All-GWLL selection this season, has multiple goals and points in 11 games this year, with three or more points in seven games, and has a point in all but two games (March 1 at Bucknell, May 4 vs. Notre Dame). He has two four-point games, with three goals and an assist vs. Bellarmine April 2 and vs. Colgate Feb. 24. Poillon, in his first season playing Division I lacrosse, is third on the team with 27 goals and fourth with 33 points.

D-MEN

The three Buckeye starters on defense each have career highs in groundballs this season. Junior Scott Matthews, in his third year as a starter and a first-team All-GWLL selection this season, has a career-best 29 groundballs, bettering the then-career best 21 he had as a freshman. Sophomore Scott Foreman has 25 in 15 games this year after seeing action in seven games a year ago and recording seven gbs. Sophomore Keith Lovett, a second-team All-GWLL choice this year who also in his first year starting, has 35 groundballs this year (14 in 2007), including a season-best six vs. Denver April 19.

HAVE A GAME

Junior Joel Dalgarno led the Buckeyes to a 20-13 conference victory over Denver April 19 with a career-best nine goals and 12 points in the win. The nine goals are the second-highest total in program history, behind the 12 Steve Lauver had vs. Bowling Green Feb. 23, 1965 (in a 28-3 OSU win), and tied Brian Driscoll, who scored nine times vs. Michigan April 8, 1967. It was the third 12-point game in program history, tying for the second-best single-game performance in the Ohio State record books. (Terry Gilmore holds the Buckeye record with 13 points vs. Bowling Green May 12, 1979.) Driscoll added three assists for 12 points in the game mentioned above, while Lauver had 12 points on 12 goals vs. the Falcons.

All-time, Dalgarno's nine goals rank 13th (tied) in the NCAA record books for a single game. They are the most for a Buckeye in a game since Curtis Smith scored seven vs. Quinnipiac March 8, 2003.

The 12 points tie for the best single-game performance in the NCAA this season, while the nine goals are the second-most in a single game. Dalgarno's eight assists vs. Quinnipiac March 29 rank as the most assists in a single game in the NCAA this season.

SCORING SHORTHANDED

With the Buckeyes playing a man down vs. Denver in the first quarter April 19, Jeff Ryan set up Kevin Buchanan for the Buckeyes' first man-down goal since 2006. The team has just three man-down goals since 2004 - Tom Randisi, April 17, 2004 vs. Hobart, Ben Wolff, April 14, 2006 vs. Butler and Buchanan vs. the Pioneers.

CAREER MARKS

Senior Josh Funk scored vs. Denver in the GWLL semis last week and has a career-best seven goals this season. He entered the campaign with six goals in 38 career games.

With three goals and five points this year, including a goal vs. the Pioneers last week, senior Rick Pages also has set career highs. He had four goals and points in his first three years with the team.

GOAL!

Junior Brian Lalley's goal vs. Denver last Friday was his first of the season and his first since March 10, 2007 vs. Penn State.

HAPPY 50TH

Senior captains Kevin Buchanan and Ricky Pages played in the 50th game of their Buckeye careers vs. Bellarmine April 2 and now have played in 56 games each. Buchanan has started 53 of those contests. Josh Funk marked the 50th game of his career against Denver April 19 and has now seen action in 53 contests for the Scarlet and Gray.

POTW - THE FIFTH EDITION

Junior attackman Joel Dalgarno was named the Great Western Lacrosse League Player of the Week, the conference announced April 23. It is the second league award this season for Dalgarno (April 2) and the third of his career. It was the fourth-consecutive, and fifth overall, weekly league award for a Buckeye in 2008.

Dalgarno also was the winner of the InsideLacrosse.com MVP of the week fan poll, garnering 81 percent of the vote.

Dalgarno led the Buckeyes to a 20-13 conference victory over Denver April 19 with a career-best nine goals and 12 points in the win. The nine goals are the second-highest total in program history, behind the 12 Steve Lauver had vs. Bowling Green Feb. 23, 1965 (in a 28-3 OSU win), and ties Brian Driscoll, who scored nine times vs. Michigan April 8, 1967. It is the third 12-point game in program history, tying for the second-best single-game performance in the Ohio State record books. (Terry Gilmore holds the Buckeye record with 13 points vs. Bowling Green May 12, 1979.) Driscoll added three assists for 12 points in the game mentioned above, while Lauver had 12 points on 12 goals vs. the Falcons.

All-time, Dalgarno's nine goals rank 13th (tied) in NCAA history for a single game. They are the most for a Buckeye in a game since Curtis Smith scored seven vs. Quinnipiac March 8, 2003.

The 12 points tie for the best single-game performance in the NCAA this season, while the nine goals are the second-most in a single game. Dalgarno's eight assists vs. Quinnipiac March 29 rank as the most assists in a single game in the NCAA this season.

DALGARNO HONORED

Joel Dalgarno was named the Great Western Lacrosse League Player of the Week for the week of March 24-30, the conference announced April 2. Dalgarno led the Buckeyes to an 18-7 win in their league opener at Quinnipiac March 29, posting a career-best eight assists and nine points.

Dalgarno assisted on eight of the Buckeyes' 18 goals in their victory over the Bobcats, including helpers on six of the team's seven man-up goals in the contest. The nine points was the best single-game performance by a Buckeye since 2003 and one point shy of Dalgarno's previous high of eight points, set vs. QU last season. The eight assists were the most in a single game in the NCAA this season and the nine points were tied for the third-best performance this year.

BUCHANAN PICKS UP HONOR

Senior midfielder Kevin Buchanan was named the Great Western Lacrosse League Player of the Week for the week of March 3-9, the third league weekly honor of his career.

Buchanan had a team-best six points in the Buckeyes' win over Penn State March 8, including a then-season-high four goals. His six points were the most since a seven-point performance vs. Harvard Feb. 25, 2007 and tied for the third-highest single-game outing in his career.

GWLL POTW AGAIN

Senior Kevin Buchanan was named the Great Western Lacrosse League Player of the Week for the week of March 31-April 6, the conference announced. It was the second league award for Buchanan this season (March 13) and was the fourth honor of his career.

Buchanan led the Buckeyes to two wins during the week, with five assists and six points in each game, as Ohio State downed Bellarmine, 20-4, April 2 and Air Force, 16-5, April 6. Against Bellarmine, Buchanan scored a man-up goal and assisted on two other EMO tallies, along with three assists with the teams at even strength. In the game vs. the Falcons, Buchanan had six points in the first half, including a man-up goal and an EMO assist. He helped the Buckeyes move into second nationally in man-up offense.

HONORS ALREADY

Buckeye seniors Kevin Buchanan, Josh Funk and Ricky Pages all were named to the Face-Off Yearbook preseason honorable mention All-America team.

In addition, Buchanan, Funk, Pages and junior Joel Dalgarno were named to the Face-Off Yearbook preseason All-GWLL team.

LEADING THE CHARGE

Ohio State seniors Kevin Buchanan, Josh Funk and Ricky Pages were voted 2008 team captains by their teammates.

A QUICK LOOK BACK

The Buckeyes were 9-5 last year and finished second in the Great Western Lacrosse League with a 5-1 mark. The Buckeyes led the nation in man-down defense (.839). Ohio State ranked eighth in the country in scoring offense (11.29) and was ninth in scoring defense (7.79). The squad also ranked seventh nationally in scoring margin (+3.5) and ninth in face-off win percentage (.591).
